

march april 2010

departments

- 5 Director's Letter
Leaving a living legacy
- 6 Daily Connection
Daily Bible readings
- 7 Persecution Report
A victim of extreme violence in India continues to find hope in God
- 9 Savvy Singles Ask Samantha
Biblical advice for singles
- 10 Ask Dr. Walt
How anger and resentment impact health
- 11 Story Behind the Song
"Because He Lives"
- 41 Money IQ
A biblical guide to leaving an inheritance
- 43 Travel
Mission trips and travel
- 44 Bible IQ
Test your Bible knowledge
- 46 Laugh Lines
Wit & wisdom
- 48 Grace Notes
Shared memories encircle a granddaughter with love

24

in every issue

- 3 President's Pen
- 4 Contributors
- 4 Having Your Say
- 13 Midstream Moments

features

- 14 Leaving the Light On
Anne Graham Lotz appreciates her amazing earthly family legacy, but it's her heritage from her Heavenly Father that is the light Anne wants to leave burning brightly.
- 20 He's Not Standing Pat
Pat Williams, of the NBA's Orlando Magic, is turning 70, but he's not slowing down. This author, speaker, marathon runner, and dad of 19 is still faithfully running the course.
- 24 Prayer . . . for Such a Time as This Wars, economic hardship, spiritual and moral failure—who can solve the problems of our nation? In an interview with Shirley Dobson, we discover our hope for help and healing.
- 26 Her Mother's Legacy
In her latest novel, best-selling author Francine Rivers unravels the complexities that come with mother-daughter relationships.
- 31 From Strong Roots
A grace-filled life is captured through a legacy scrapbook. Learn how to leave a lasting treasury of faith for those you love. Plus, tips for creating your own memory scrapbook.
- 36 Written on Their Hearts
Discover fun and imaginative ways to forge lasting connections with children through reading. Ideas for crafts and games will bring what you've read to life.
- 40 Sweet Talk
Honey biscuits are quick to make but become a life-long memory when baked with a special child.

26

31

